Information for Drivers

The boxes give information on destinations for use in satnavs. Country locations don't have precise postcodes, so you may do better with a grid reference or latitude and longitude. Most of the directions here are based on Google Streetview, and are the best I can manage. Most distances and times come from Google. Feel free to use your own route.

My driving distance was 144 miles, actual driving time 2 hours 50 minutes.

Make your own way to the A417/A419 past Swindon.

Turn left on to the M4.

At junction 13 < turn right on to the A34.

After 29 miles, at a large roundabout, turn right on to the M3.

At junction 13 take the 2nd or 3rd lane to turn left on to the M27 East.

After some miles this becomes the A27, which you should follow through several roundabouts. Do not take the first road into Arundel, but take the third exit at the roundabout, still on the A27.

At the next roundabout turn left into The Causeway, Arundel.

The entrance to the Lido car park is on the right, just before the 30 sign.

Parking is £2.50 for 4 hours, £5 for more. There are no toilets here.

Google says 11.9 miles, 22 minutes.

On leaving the car park turn right and cross the bridge.

Turn left and immediately right following the one-way streets.

Near the top of the hill, follow one-way street to left, then turn immediately right, then immediately left on the London Road.

At a T-junction turn right on to the A284.

At a roundabout (Whiteways), turn right (3rd exit) on to the B2139.

This eventually takes you to Storrington, where you turn right at a small roundabout on the the A283.

Pass through the shopping centre. At a mini-roundabout turn left on to the B2139 marked Thakeham and West Chiltington.

Go straight on at the 1st roundabout, left at the 2nd, still B2139.

When you go up a hill through trees you are getting near. Descend the other side.

The entrance to Abingworth is hard to spot. It is on the right at the bottom of the hill just before the 30 sign, and marked with a discreet green sign.

The car park is beyond the house.
